

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday March 6, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Labor unions make big gains in elections

Controversial Miss. School Safety Act passes House

Flood threat not over

Babies, health tests on agenda

Candidates turning to Web to draw voters

Supreme Court to rule on sex case

Supreme Court denies hearing

DSU recognizing diversity of student body, languages

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Park Service to ground personal watercraft

Auditor wants improved oversight of state's wheels

Nerves rise with rivers

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

How many state-owned cars are too many?

ERIC CLARK: Don't sacrifice Keesler AFB for another casino

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Furniture company closes Fayette plant

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Technology program dies

Navy Team Meridian ready for action

Pickering talks about state flag, census, taxes

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Families flee homes near rising Leaf River

Howard Technology Park aims to keep graduates home

Voters must participate in process

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Editorial for Monday, March 5, 2001

stateline.org

State Lawmakers Concerned About Lack of Focus on Farm Issues